Happy English Club
Hanoi English · hanoienglish.com

Progress Report

Nguyễn Thị Minh Anh

· Reporting period
2026-08-15 → 2026-11-12

A2

Estimated CEFR level · 78% confidence
Minh Anh sustains short exchanges about familiar topics, uses past simple with growing accuracy and reads graded texts at Movers level with little support.

Skill matrix

Speaking 3.5/5
Answers in full sentences; still pauses to find past forms.

Listening 4/5
Follows multi-step instructions in class without translation.

Reading 3.5/5
Reads Movers stories aloud with good phrasing.

Writing 3/5
Writes 5–6 linked sentences; spelling of -ed endings inconsistent.

Grammar 3/5
Past simple regular verbs secure; irregular verbs developing.

Vocabulary 4/5
Active vocabulary of ~620 words, strong on family and food topics.

Strengths

Confident speaking
Volunteered answers in 9 of 11 lessons; led a pair role-play on 5 Nov.

Vocabulary retention
92% recall on spaced-review cards over the last 30 days.

Growth areas

Irregular past forms
“goed”, “eated” logged 7 times in October homework.
→ Short daily drill of 10 irregular verbs with picture cards.

Final consonant sounds
Drops /t/ and /d/ endings in 40% of recorded sentences.
→ Minimal-pair listening games, 5 minutes per lesson.

Learning styles

Visual | Kinaesthetic | Learns well in pairs

Next steps for the teacher

1. Pair Minh Anh with a quieter partner to model full answers.
2. Use picture cards for irregular verbs at the start of each lesson.
3. Encourage reading one graded reader per week at home.

Report narrative

Minh Anh has made steady progress this term. She enjoys speaking activities and often helps her classmates during pair work. Cô giáo rất vui khi thấy con tự tin phát biểu trong lớp.

Her next step is accuracy with irregular past verbs and clear final sounds. A few minutes of practice at home each day – reading aloud and using the vocabulary app – will make a real difference before the end-of-term test.

Evidence: 14 transcript metrics · 23 errors · 618 words · 6 work samples · 22 attendance records

> This report celebrates progress and points to next steps. Your child's teachers are glad to talk it through with you.

> Keep going: confidence grows with practice.

With warm regards,

Teacher Victor

Happy English Club

hanoienglish.com